

Pathfinder Services, Inc. promotes Wellness among employees

Pathfinder Services, Inc. held a company wide Wellness Fair on Tuesday March 25th from 7:00 A.M. until 10:00 A.M. Over 200 Pathfinder employees in Huntington County had the opportunity to speak with thirteen vendors in attendance.

“Our goal for this wellness fair is to provide employees with the tools necessary to make healthier lifestyle choices each and every day,” stated Patty Brodbeck, Employee Wellness and Benefits Coordinator for Pathfinder Services, Inc. “We hope to encourage employees to take advantage of fitness and health information available to assist them in leading a healthier lifestyle,” Brodbeck added.

Vendors at the Pathfinder Wellness fair included: Core Benefits, Signature Care, Individualized Care Management, Pfizer Pharmaceuticals, YMCA of Huntington, Spiece Fitness, Body Zone Fitness and Tanning, Parkview Health and Wellness, Nail Station, Purdue Extension Office, Huntington County Cancer Services, Dyer Health and Wellness, a registered RN taking blood pressure, height and weight, and Chem 17 and Bone Density Screenings taken by Parkview Huntington Hospital.

Andrew Miller, Parkview Health and Christina Borton, Resource connection Program Coordinator for Pathfinder Services, Inc.

Pathfinder Services is a local not for profit organization specializing in working with people with disabilities, and has been serving Huntington County since 1966. Pathfinder Services, Inc. serves over 2,000 individuals with and without disabilities throughout Northeast Indiana, and has additional office locations in Wabash and Plymouth. For more information on the services of Pathfinder Services, Inc. please call their Huntington office at (260) 356-0500 or visit www.pathfinderservices.org.