

Do YOU Have Faith? Find her at disAbilities Expo 2010

On April 10, 2010 from 10:00 A.M. to 7:00 P.M., Turnstone will host northeast Indiana's first disAbilities Expo at the Allen County War Memorial Coliseum! The event is FREE!

The disAbilities Expo will offer something for everyone! disAbilities Expo 2010 will include:

- KEYNOTE Speaker Jude Stringfellow! Jude is the owner of Faith, the two-legged Dog. Join us to share in Faith's story-a miraculous tale of strength & acceptance!
- An Exhibitor Hall! Over 60 vendors who provide products and services to people with disabilities, hearing or vision loss, seniors and their caregivers will exhibit at the Expo.
- Free Workshops! Several workshops will be offered throughout the day. Topics addressed will be specific to the needs of people with physical disabilities, their caregivers and providers. Topics include universal design, canine companionship, social networking, health and recreation and new happenings in the world of therapy.
- Four Adaptive Sports Demonstrations, two Fashion Shows, and an Art Exhibition!

People with disabilities interested in exhibiting their art or creative work should contact Jennifer Neher, Director of Development & Marketing at Turnstone at (260) 483-2100 or jennifer@turnstone.org.
